Our Learning Circle

Our work is based on the LEARNING CIRCLE, ensuring that our books and associated products cover the eight basic areas of a child's development.

PERSONAL SKILLS

The ability to understand oneself, one's own world and limits: Who am I. Include feelings, capabilities, ideas and actions.

PHYSICAL SKILLS

The ability to use one's body for all types of activities, to express one's ideas and feelings and acquire body awareness. It is satisfying for the child to be able to master its body and beneficial for the child's motor development at all levels.

SOCIAL SKILLS

The ability to understand others, read their mood, feelings and body language and learn to be part of social groups. Communities and social relations are important factors in a child's development because this is where the child gets recognition and sees its own strengths and importance.

ARTISTIC SKILLS

The ability to understand and play with colours and shapes. The child's inherent creativity is in focus here. Through creative play the child develops its attentiveness, focus and fine motor skills.

MUSICAL SKILLS

The ability to distinguish between rhythm, notes and tunes and express them. It motivates the child to move and train its motor skills and strengthens the child's linguistic development.

MATHEMATICAL SKILLS 13^2

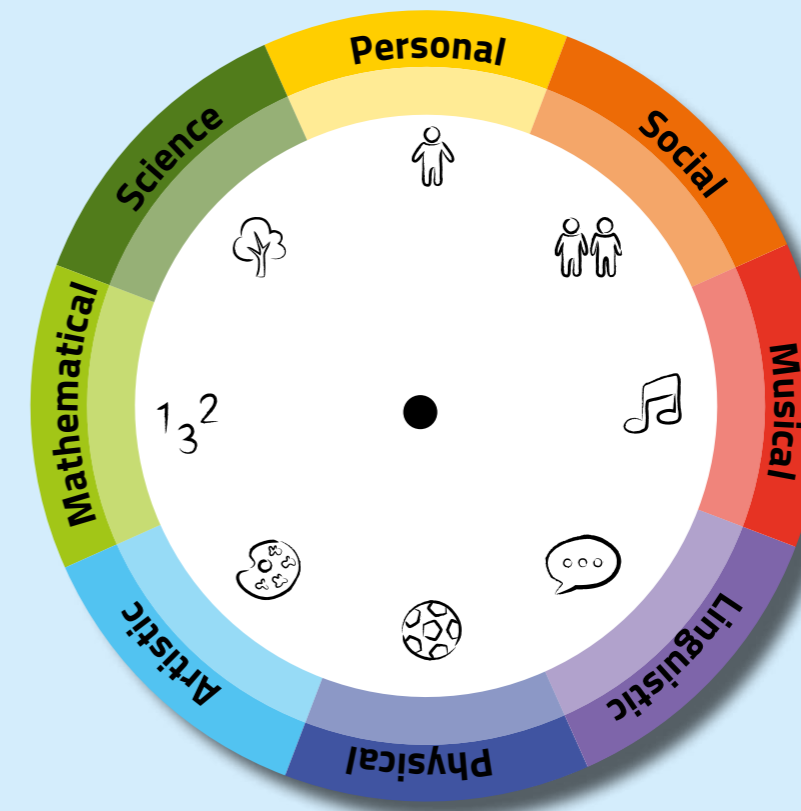

The ability to understand the concept of numbers, geometry and the language of mathematics provides children with a tool for understanding the world around them and help them master everyday problems.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

The ability to think while speaking, use (new) words and develop one's linguistic capacity through rhymes and small stories and through communicating with one's immediate surroundings. Language skills are key to forming social relationships and friendships as well as to obtaining information and knowledge.

SCIENCE SKILLS

The ability to wonder at nature, have a realistic perception of it, know where things come from and how people form part of nature's cycle and their impact on it. Children who become knowledgeable about nature are more inclined to take care of it.

Creating Meaningful Learning and Play

There is nothing more important for a child's development and learning process than reading and playing. When we create a new book concept, we view the child as a scientist at work and we aim to provide the child with the right tools for their learning process. Whether it is reading a book, building a tower of blocks, putting together a jigsaw puzzle or playing a board game, a child is constantly engaged in learning how the world works.

How does a child learn through playing
Children never "just" play. Through working and playing together, children develop a sense of responsibility for the well-being of others and their environment. Putting together a puzzle improves concentration skills and cognitive skills.

Our job as parents and educators is to find ways to support and extend a child's learning experience. Never interrupt it. Never dominate. Let the kids take the lead and show you how they learn.

Look for our logo and learn our icons
All of our books carry the meaningful play logo. You can learn more about how each book set aims to create meaningful learning by studying the various icons and their meaning.

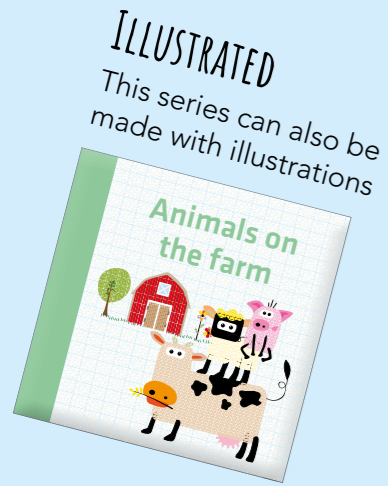

My First Book About

These eight books cover the basic areas in the general development of a child.

0-3 YEARS

INSERTS
All books include a special insert explaining the use of the book and suggest additional activities.

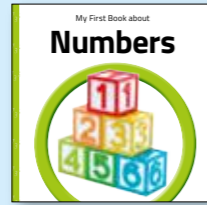

SCIENCE SKILLS
Children are born curious towards nature and all living things, especially animals, and here, the child can explore the farm, its animals and their environment, creating a basis for its understanding of the surrounding world.

PERSONAL SKILLS
The young child uses its body to explore its surroundings. Here, the child gets to know the names of various body parts and its sense of being an individual is stimulated.

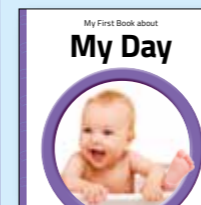

MATHEMATICAL SKILLS
The numbers 1-10 trigger the child's understanding of small quantities from an early age and benefit its understanding of the concept of numbers later on.

ARTISTIC SKILLS
Colours are constantly used to describe and organise the world. Here, the child gets to know the primary colours, and its imagination and creativity are stimulated.

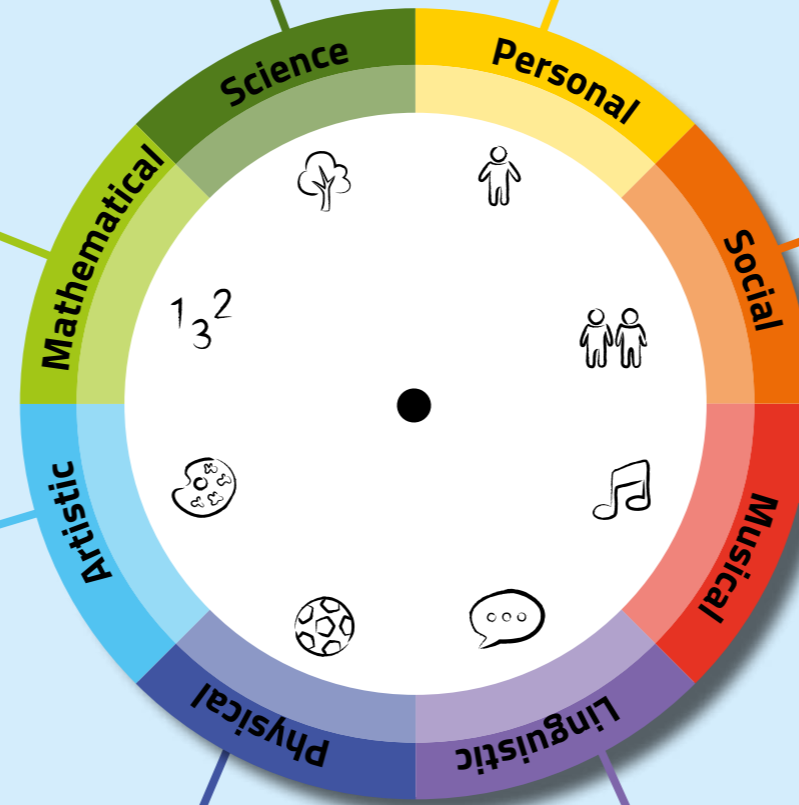

PHYSICAL SKILLS
The young child gets to know its body through movement. The activities here reflect what the young child can do, encouraging it to imitate and play.

LANGUAGE SKILLS
Here, the child and the adult person can help each other describe the typical day of the child and indirectly stimulate the child's perception of time.

MARKETING MATERIAL
We offer different marketing materials to the shops and the customers

Learning Boxes

These eight books cover the basic areas in the general development of a child.

3-5 YEARS

MARKETING MATERIAL
We offer different marketing materials to the shops and the customers.

MY FAMILY

In this book, the child gets to know what constitutes a family, what a family can do together, and an introduction to the 5 most important basic feelings.

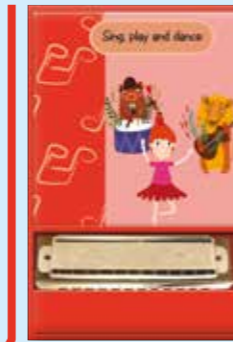

The box shows a familytree, where the child can place pictures of its family, and a memory game with the basic feelings.

SING, PLAY & DANCE

In this book, the child is introduced to instruments and other ways of creating music and rhythm. The song-game „wheels on the bus“ encourages the child and adult to sing and play together.

The box mimics a xylophone and within the box is a harmonica, both inviting to play and strengthening the child's oral motor skills.

ME & MY BODY

In this book, the child is introduced to how its body works and body processes, and how the senses work.

The box shows a skeleton on which the child can place a puzzle of the body included in the box.

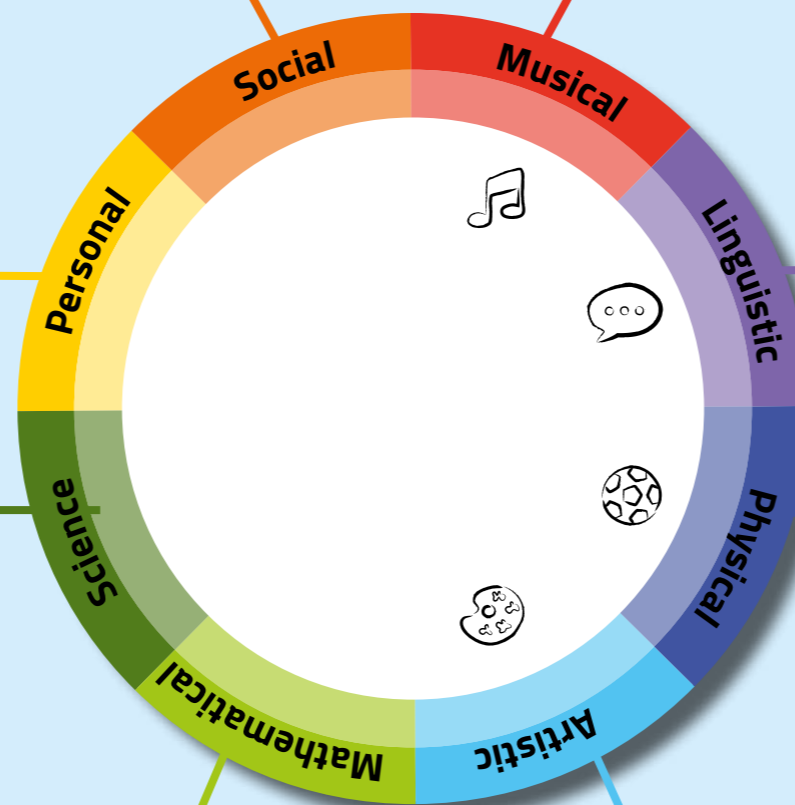

ALPHABET TRAIN

In this book, the child is introduced to the alphabet by different animals from all environments: the forest, the savannah, the ocean, the air and the farm.

The box shows the big alphabet, which will aid the child in placing the train puzzle with the entire alphabet from A to Z.

* The next step: Play with the alphabet

EXPLORING NATURE

In this book, the child is introduced to the animals that live just outside its home and is given a short introduction to the weather.

The box displays an array of insects, which the child is encouraged to find and get a closer look at using the magnifying glass included in the box.

UP AND JUMP!

In this book, the child is introduced to the importance of staying active and is given some suggestions for activities, with or without props.

The box becomes a boardgame where every stop on the board shows an activity, like standing on one leg or a somersault. In the box are also two dice, one showing activities, the other numbers.

1-2-3-TRAIN

In this book, the child is introduced to the first ten numbers by the train wagons and a short text telling how many of the corresponding animals can be found on the pages.

The box shows a ruler for the numbers 1-10, with the corresponding animal, helping the child do the number puzzle.

* The next step: Play with numbers

DRAW YOURSELF!

In this book, the child gets to understand how to draw itself, both full-length and selfportrait.

The box includes a mirror, wherein the child can study itself for the portrait, and a set of colouring pencils.

Learning Trains

Our range of learning boxes all include a 12-page illustrated book as well as a game to enhance the learning experience for the young child. Our themes cover spelling, counting and telling the time.

We hope to encourage a strong dialogue between parent and child by exploring important subjects for the young learner and providing an extra tool through the play element to encourage early learning.

All the boxes cover skills from the learning circle and aims to engage the child and adult in meaningful play.

My Little Village

Find us on YouTube at Globe Publishing, and see the concept come to life

Our best-selling series, My Little Village, is now sold in over 1,5 million copies in over 40 countries around the world. The concept of the series is to provide the most meaningful play and learning experience for the child aged 3-5 years old.

The idea behind these kits is that the child will be able to grow up with the product. To begin with, an adult can read out loud the book in order to best explain the photos and content. Later on, young readers can look through the thick pages themselves and understand the writing.

The book is full of photography as it is important to understand how things look in the real world. The puzzle and wooden figures are illustrated to stimulate the child's imagination and encourage role play. The lid of the box goes all the way down the sides to ensure that all of the elements stay securely inside.

The wooden figures are nice and thick to provide the best play experience for the young child. Thinner wooden figures would topple over and frustrate young learners.

Be kind to the environment!
Nearly all of the packaging can be reused to enhance the play experience.

All of the roads from the different puzzles fit together so you can create a whole village by collecting more than one box.

Book and box are used as a building.

Fun cardboard characters create more opportunities for role play and dialogue.

The wooden figures are thick to provide the best play experience for the young child and to develop motoric skills.

All the boxes can be used as buildings.

Why have we mixed photos and illustrations?

The book is full of photography for young learners to understand how things really look in the actual world.

The puzzle, wooden figures and cardboard elements are all illustrated to stimulate the child's imagination and encourage role play.

THE ACTIVITY KITS ACTIVELY SUPPORT AND
STIMULATE THE CHILD'S IMAGINATION AND LEARNING DEVELOPMENT.

My Fire Station
 Every young aspiring firefighter's dream! Zoom through the city, under bridges and through tunnels, with a great little red fire engine and help put out fires and help cats down trees.

My Farm
 A fun box that lets you create your own farm scene and play with four wooden farm animals. The book folds up to create a roof for your very own farmhouse and the animals can be placed in their own little stable inside the box.

My Train Station
 Choo Choo! The little wooden train is busy making sure all the people of the village are getting to where they need to go. Learn more about trains in the 64-page book enclosed and then turn the box itself into a small train station and busy platform.

My Zoo
 Come visit the village zoo! Meet all the animals in the 64-page book, full of colourful photography, and then have fun with the four enclosed wooden animals and the matching puzzle. The box turns into the home for the wooden alligator.

My Construction Site
 Cranes, bulldozers and lorries are all hard at work at the construction site and they need your help to finish their latest building project.

My Home
 Learn all about homes around the world and look inside one family's house in the 64-page book. Then, play with your very own little doll house as the box turns into a 3 story home and play with the enclosed wooden family.

My Space Station
 Explore all about space and learn about planets, stars and how you become an astronaut in this lovely, thoroughly photographic 64-page book. The box turns into your very own little space station.

My Racing Circuit
 Vroom vroom! Join the racing cars for an exciting and speedy adventure on the track. Learn all about the world of racing in the 64-page book, build your own circuit with the enclosed puzzle and start racing with the toy cars!

My Airport
 There is so much to see and do at the airport! The 64-page book explores the world of travel and gives children a first insight into what it is like to fly. The box turns into a mini airport and the wooden figures enclosed allows for strong dialogue and role play about this first important experience.

My Garage
 Read all about cars and then play with the 3 wooden cars and create your very own parking garage with the packaging. A small hole in the side allows the cars to drive in and out.

My Hospital
 There is a lot happening at the hospital and all of the doctors and nurses are busy with patients. Come with us as we explore what goes on at My Little Hospital and find out what YOU can do to keep your body healthy, fit and active.

My Marketplace
 The market is bustling with people and shopkeepers. Learn all about where the food on the market comes from in the fully photographic 64-page book and then act out real market situations on the enclosed jigsaw puzzle and with the wooden characters.

My Little Kingdom

My Little Kingdom consists of four (or an optional six) titles that can be put together in any way to form your very own little kingdom, full of fairy magic, princess glamour, brave knights and adventurous pirates. All titles consist of high-quality wooden toys, a puzzle as well as a 12-page illustrated board book.

We strongly believe that our packaging should be more than just packaging. Each box magically transforms into a castle, a fortress, a pirate ship or a home for the fairies.

Sidsel Brix

Sidsel Brix is a Danish illustrator, educated at the design school in Kolding in 2005. "When I became an illustrator, it was with the wish of drawing for children and with children. I love moving in the universe of the child, where everything is so straightforward and yet so complex.

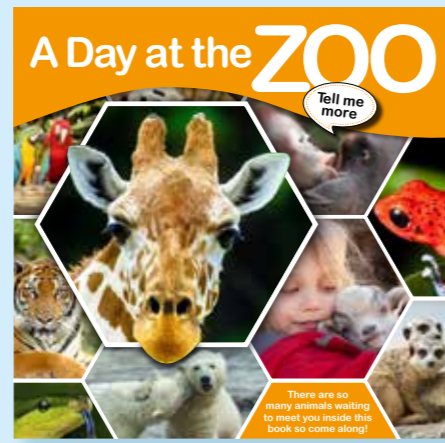

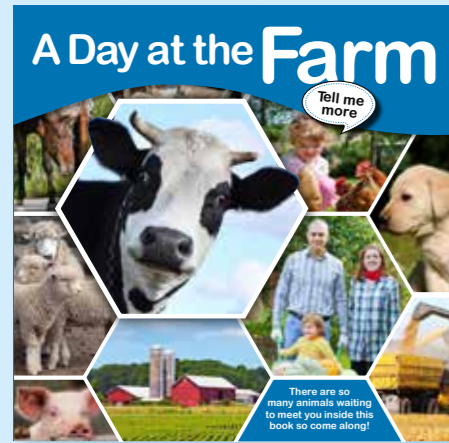

It is with my greatest pleasure that I have been allowed to express my inner images and thoughts about the fairy tales that I love so dearly. I hope you will enjoy moving in this universe as much I have done."

Sidsel Brix, illustrator

Tell Me More

Our non-fiction series for curious 3 to 5 year olds everywhere! The Tell Me More series explores themes familiar to children such as zoo animals, the farm, food, music and sounds, cars and air travel. We want to encourage a strong connection between reader and listener. The books are full of questions to encourage further dialogue and activities. The photographic treatment of the subject brings the experience closer to the child.
